

European Columbines feature unique spurred flowers in various colors including blue, purple, and pink. This perennial grows 40-80 cm tall and blooms in late spring. Columbines prefer partial shade and moist, well-drained soil. The flowers attract hummingbirds and bees. Columbines self-seed readily in suitable conditions.