

Bearded Irises are known for their spectacular flowers with fuzzy beard-like patches on falls. They come in countless colors and patterns, blooming in late spring. These rhizomatous perennials grow 30-120 cm tall. Irises prefer full sun and well-drained soil. The fleur-de-lis symbol is derived from the iris flower.