

English Lavender is famous for its fragrant purple flowers and silvery-green foliage. This perennial shrub grows 30-90 cm tall and blooms from late spring to early summer. The flowers are used in perfumes, sachets, and culinary applications. Lavender prefers full sun and well-drained alkaline soil. It attracts bees and butterflies to the garden.