

The Madonna Lily is renowned for its pure white, trumpet-shaped flowers and sweet fragrance. This perennial bulb grows up to 1.2 meters tall and blooms in early summer. It has historical significance in various cultures and religions. The plant prefers full sun to partial shade and well-drained soil. Madonna Lilies are often used in wedding bouquets.