

Sunflowers are iconic annual plants known for their large, bright yellow flower heads. They can grow up to 3 meters tall and follow the sun throughout the day. The flowers produce edible seeds rich in nutrients. Sunflowers thrive in full sun and well-drained soil. They are cultivated worldwide for their oil, seeds, and ornamental value.