

Tulips are among the most popular spring-blooming bulbs worldwide. They feature cup-shaped flowers in virtually every color except true blue. These perennial plants grow from bulbs and typically reach 10-70 cm in height. Tulips prefer cool climates and well-drained soil. They symbolize perfect love and are often associated with the Netherlands.